WATER ACTIVITIES

Valley of Waves

The legendary Valley of Waves is a water-filled adventure where guests of all ages can enjoy an action-packed day riding down subterranean chutes, catching perfect waves or floating down the Lazy River. The Valley of Waves is exclusive to day visitors with a valid ticket and hotel residents.

Attractions include:

- The Roaring Lagoon. A 6 500m<sup>2</sup> pool where 2m-high waves are generated every 90 seconds.
- Temple of Courage. A slide with a 70m drop that hurtles riders under a bridge and into a small pool.
- Tarantula. A closed body slide that takes guests on a dark and twisty ride to a pool.
- The Scorpion. An open body slide that twists, turns and ends in a splash.
- The Viper and Mamba. A slide that takes two riders on inflated tubes on a thrilling journey.
- The Ovango and Nobels' Decent. Slides that start at a 60-storey height. On one, riders have to use inflatable rafts to guide themselves through twists and turn at speeds of up to 65km/h, while the other takes you through a gravity-defying loop.

Waterworld

There are also many fun activities to enjoy at Waterworld:

- Waterskiing
- Parasailing
- Jet skis
- Tube rides
- Pedal boats

Little ones can also play mini golf or ride around in mini cars.
